The founders of our nation believed that all Americans should have the right to worship according to their own beliefs, or not to worship at all. So strong was their commitment to religious freedom that they enshrined it in the first sentence of the Bill of Rights.

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof..."

This constitutional guarantee is often known as the "first freedom."

Suzie Armstrong, Vice-President of The Interfaith Alliance Foundation, will facilitate a conversation with panelists about profound and contemporary issues as understood through religious liberties.

Please RSVP, with your name and number of guests to eshutt@interfaithalliance.org or call Eric at 202.639.6370, X130, Or to Donna Red Wing at dredwing@interfaithalliance.org

There is no charge.
